

KNOWLEDGE YOU NEED RIGHT AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

www.publicpensionsonline.com

Public Pensions Online is a private, subscriber-only one-stop resource for individuals and organizations that have a serious interest in the public employee pension industry.

Up-to-date policy and political news from Washington, DC and state capitols presented in a concise and useful manner for pension plan trustees, administrators, advocates and service providers.

Want to share your opinion on a critical public retirement issue? Public Pensions Online publishes perspectives from industry leaders, informative service providers, and the media.

Public Pensions Online searches the nation's news media for industry-related information. Headline stories and feature articles are added daily.

If you're interested in the critical issues of the public pension industry, Public Pensions Online offers a searchable database of information, research, and news organized by major topic.

Policy

- Features on key industry trends from plan trustees and administrators.
- Spotlight on recent legal decisions impacting public plan benefits.
- Resource material on major policy issues with links to key resources.

Politics

- Up-to-date news from Washington, DC on significant pension related issues.
- Timely alerts of pending rules and legislation.

- Features on national policy makers impacting the public pension industry.
- News from state legislatures on industry related topics and trends.
- Links to key federal decision-makers and policy resources.

People

- Industry names in the news from around the nation.
- Informative, industry-related human interest stories.
- Networking opportunities for personal and professional development.
- Links to public retirement associations.

Perspectives

- Timely opinion pieces focusing on issues and trends affecting pension benefits and plan administration.
- Discussions of key policy debates that are shaping the future of the public pension industry.

Search for a public retirement system, a retirement association, an organization of public employees or countless other public pension-related resources, with Public Pensions Online.